

Watson Janowitz Cuozzo Scholarship Awards

Each November, PANJ presents three scholarships at the Annual Training Institute in Atlantic City. Each $1,000 award is available to all active or retired PANJ members and their children.

The Dwight Watson Leadership Scholarship Award

This is available to any candidate enrolled in a two or four year college in pursuit of a career in criminal justice. Dwight Watson was the First Vice President of PANJ and was instrumental in leading PANJ through its most difficult years involving the state takeover of the courts and personnel. He was also in charge of the Legal Committee.

The Ethan Janowitz Training Educational Scholarship Award

This is available to any candidate enrolled in a two or four year college, or vocational / technical school. Ethan Janowitz worked in Essex County as a training officer. Ethan helped PANJ restart the Annual Training Conference in 1991. He was also a professor at Seton Hall University.

The Kimberly Cuozzo Continuing Education Scholarship

This is available to any candidate continuing their education in a two or four year college or a vocational / technical school. This scholarship was created to honor the memory of Kimberly Cuozzo, daughter of Conference Chairperson Susan Ormsby-Cuozzo. Kim was a recipient of the Ethan Janowitz Training Scholarship Award.

Candidates must have completed high school and maintained a "B" average for college students or a "C" average for vocational / technical school. Each candidate will be required to complete an application including financial data and a copy of high school transcripts. Consideration will be given to the following characteristics: professionalism, personality, dedication, leadership, participation in school and community affairs and financial need.

Applications are available at the PANJ office and online at www.panj.org
