STATEMENT

5

6 This concurrent resolution proposes to amend the State
 7 Constitution to authorize the Legislature to enact a statute to 8 establish a Bureau of Probation in the State Board of Parole and 9 transfer all of the functions, powers, duties and responsibilities
 10 concerning probation, and the probation officers and other
 11 professional supervisors, case workers, and case-related employees
 12 who perform probation functions from the Judiciary to this new 13 Bureau of Probation. Under the proposed constitutional
 14 amendment, existing contractual terms and conditions would remain
 15 unchanged, as would the status of exclusive employee bargaining
 16 representatives. The units and contracts, as well as the contract
 17 representatives, would be continued in the Bureau of Probation.

18 The Legislature passed P.L.2001, c.362 (C.2B:10A-1 et al.) to 19 establish a "Probation Officer Community Safety Unit" consisting 20 of at least 200 probation officers to carry a firearm in accordance

1 with the provisions of paragraph (17) of subsection c. of 2 N.J.S.2C:39-6 and regulations adopted by the Attorney General.
3 The legislation also granted these probation officers the authority to 4 arrest probationers, enforce the criminal laws of this State, and 5 enforce warrants for the apprehension and arrest of probationers
6 who violate conditions of probation.

7 In April 2006, the New Jersey Supreme Court ruled that 8 P.L.2001, c.362 (C.2B:10A-1 et al.) was unconstitutional because it
9 violated the separation of powers doctrine. The court stated that it 10 is the responsibility of the Judiciary to define the duties of 11 probation officers. The court also reiterated its position that 12 probation officers are not law enforcement officers, but impartial
13 agents of the Judiciary.
