23 STATEMENT

24

25 This bill authorizes probation officers to exercise police powers.
26 Specifically, they would have the authority to act as officers for the 27 detection, apprehension, arrest, and conviction of offenders against
28 the law by virtue of their appointment or employment as probation
29 officers.

30 P.L.1968, c.427 (C.2A:154-4) authorizes corrections officers,
31 parole officers, and investigators in the Department of Corrections
32 to exercise police powers. This bill expands this law to similarly 33 empower probation officers to act as police officers.

EXPLANATION – Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [thus] in the above bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted in the law.

Matter underlined thus is new matter.
