3 paragraph.

4
5 BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate of the State of New Jersey (the 6 General Assembly concurring):

7
8 1. The following proposed amendment to the Constitution of 9 the State of New Jersey is agreed to:

10
11 PROPOSED AMENDMENT

12
13 Amend Article V, Section IV by adding a new paragraph 7 to 14 read as follows:

15 7. The Legislature is authorized to establish by law a Bureau of 16 Probation in the State Parole Board and to authorize by law the 17 transfer of all the functions, powers, duties, and responsibilities
18 concerning probation, and the probation officers and other
19 professional supervisors, case workers, and case-related employees
20 who perform probation functions, from the Judiciary to the Bureau
21 of Probation. No term or condition of any existing contract shall be 22 altered or abrogated by this transfer and the transfer shall not affect 23 the status of existing exclusive employee bargaining
24 representatives. The units and contracts and the contract
25 representatives shall, therefore, be continued in the Bureau of 26 Probation.

27
28 2. When this proposed amendment to the Constitution is finally
29 agreed to pursuant to Article IX, paragraph 1 of the Constitution, it
30 shall be submitted to the people at the next general election
31 occurring more than three months after the final agreement and 32 shall be published at least once in at least one newspaper of each
33 county designated by the President of the Senate, the Speaker of the 34 General Assembly and the Attorney General, not less than three 35 months prior to the general election.

36
37 3. This proposed amendment to the Constitution shall be 38 submitted to the people at that election in the following manner and 39 form:

40 There shall be printed on each official ballot to be used at the 41 general election, the following:

42 a. In every municipality in which voting machines are not used,
43 a legend which shall immediately precede the question as follows:

This Senate Concurrent Resolution proposes to amend the State Constitution to authorize the Legislature to enact a statute to establish a Bureau of Probation in the State Parole Board. The constitutional amendment transfers all of the functions, powers, duties and responsibilities concerning probation, and the probation officers and other professional supervisors, case workers, and case-related employees who perform probation functions from the Judiciary to this new Bureau of Probation.

Under this proposed constitutional amendment, existing contractual terms and conditions would remain unchanged, as would the status of exclusive employee bargaining representatives.

SCR91 WEINBERG

1 The units and contracts, as well as the contract representatives,
2 would be continued in the Bureau of Probation.

3 In 2001, the Legislature enacted a law (P.L.2001, c.362
4 (C.2B:10A-1 et al.)) to establish a “Probation Officer Community
5 Safety Unit” consisting of at least 200 probation officers authorized
6 to carry a firearm in accordance with the provisions of paragraph
7 (17) of subsection c. of N.J.S.2C:39-6 and regulations adopted by
8 the Attorney General. The legislation also granted these probation
9 officers the authority to arrest probationers, enforce the criminal
10 laws of this State, and enforce warrants for the apprehension and 11 arrest of probationers who violate conditions of probation.

12 In April 2006, the New Jersey Supreme Court ruled that
13 P.L.2001, c.362 (C.2B:10A-1 et al.) was unconstitutional because it
14 violated the separation of powers doctrine. The court stated that it
15 is the responsibility of the Judiciary to define the duties of 16 probation officers. The court also reiterated its position that 17 probation officers are not law enforcement officers, but impartial
18 agents of the Judiciary.
